GRAND JURY TO PROBE THE KLAN

District Judge at Austin, Texas, Prompted to Act Following Outrage at Lorena

KU KLUX WARNINGS RECEIVED

Two Read in Court When Charge is Delivered to Grand Jury—
Lorena in Two Camps

(By United Press)

Austin, Tex., Oct. 3.—The Travis county grand jury impaneled today was charged by District Judge Hamilton to make a probe of the Ku Klux Klan in this county.

This is the second grand jury to be given such a charge by Judge Hamilton to unearth facts about the organization. A recent parade in Austin of the Klan and the tarring and feathering of J. D. Jansen of this city last week, together with a riot at Lorena Saturday night, prompted the judge to ask for another investigation of the Travis and Austin contingent of the Ku Klux Klan.

Judge Hamilton insisted that such an organization was in violation of the law and said he is determined to go the limit of his authority in breaking it up.

Five Austin citizens in the past forty-eight hours received alleged Ku Klux warnings.

Judge Hamilton read to the grand jury two letters received from the Klan, both warning that the recipients mend their ways or leave town. One warned against "slopping around with bootleggers" and the other warned against bootlegging and wild women.

"This court has received threatening acts through anonymous letters," the judge said in opening his charges, "but if I had been killed as many times as criminals of this town have threatened, there would not be enough vacant lots in the city cemetery to give me an honorable burial."

Waco, Tex., Oct. 3.—Lorena, the little town near here which was the scene of the battle between members of the Ku Klux Klan and a posse led by Sheriff Bob Buchanan, was split in opposing camps today.

In the teeth of the resolution of 100 citizens which held Sheriff Buchanan to blame for the riot of Saturday night, in which ten persons were injured, County Attorney E. H. Tiery announced that a grand jury investigation would be held as soon as possible.

Four of those who were shot or stabbed when the sheriff attempted to stop the scheduled parade of the Klan were in a serious condition.

FIRST FROST OF THE SEASON IS PREDICTED

Weather Man Says Light One May be Expected Tonight—Stage Is All Set For It

NO DAMAGE IS EXPECTED

The first frost of the fall is predicted for tonight by the weatherman and local prognosticators today were of the opinion that the weather bureau would not "miss it" this time.

Following a steady rain during the night, and a cold, windy morning, the skies cleared this afternoon and it began to look after all as if the stage were being set for a frost.

Although there have been some very chilly mornings this fall, local people who are up before sunrise every morning say that there has never been any sign of frost.

The lowest temperature so far reported has been forty-eight degrees, and it is stated that frost will never appear at that temperature.

Frost is not expected to do much damage as the fruit crop is about all picked with the exception of apples. Garden truck is practically all cleaned up and no fear is felt of a light frost causing any serious damage.

RESUMES SESSION TUESDAY

Grand Jury May Not Complete Investigations in a Day

The grand jury will again be in session Tuesday, to resume their investigations which were not completed last week. A long list of witnesses has been prepared for the grand jury, and it may require longer than tomorrow before they will finish up their work and make a report of the indictments. The grand jury was not in session Saturday nor today.

The riding bailiff was in the northern part of the county today, in the vicinity of Carthage, where a number of witnesses will be called for Tuesday.

THREATENED WAR MAY BE AVERTED

Albania Ready to Accept Delimitation of Ambassadors County if They Are Just

SERBIA AND GREECE AGREE

(By United Press)

Geneva, Oct. 3.—Prospect at least of one threatened Balkan war being averted were heightened today when M. Fannoli, Albanian, delegate to the League of Nations assembly, announced his country was ready to accept the delimitation proposed by the ambassadors council at Paris, "provided they were just."

Serbia and Greece already have agreed to abide by the decision of the allied ambassadors and the threat of serious conflict between these countries and Albania over possible concession of some territory claimed by the latter seems to have been temporarily removed.

Albanian delegates recently announced to the League of Nations assembly that Serbia has seized Albanian territory and was bombarding frontier towns.

Intervention was asked.

The ambassadors council proposed certain delimitations of the newly formed state of Albania.

MRS. GUSTA HINCHMAN DIES IN INDIANAPOLIS

Word was received here today of the death of Mrs. Gusta Hinchman, widow of the late Rufus Hinchman, which occurred today at noon at her home in Indianapolis. The deceased was sixty-four years of age and death was caused from an abscess of the ear which terminated in lockjaw.

The deceased was well known here, having formerly lived in this city, and had several relatives by marriage living in this county. Emerson Hinchman and Harv-brothers-in-law. No word had been received this afternoon of the funeral services.

TO REMAIN OUT OF MINES

Several Hundred Miners Adopt Resolutions at Franklin, Kas.

Franklin, Kas., Oct. 3.—Resolutions to remain away from work until the Kansas industrial court is repealed and Alexander Howat and August Dorchy, miners union chiefs are released from jail at Columbus, where they are imprisoned for violating the court law, were adopted by several hundred miners meeting here.

The resolutions also condemned Governor Allen of Kansas and President Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America.

PURE SEED LAW TO PROTECT FARMERS

Every Package or Lot of One Pound or More Shall Bear Label Showing Its Contents

OTHER PROVISIONS OF LAW

Local Dealers in Agricultural Seeds Notified That New Measure is Now In Effect

Local dealers in agricultural seeds have received notices during the last few days that the new "pure seed law" enacted by the last legislature is now in effect. Certain requirements are laid down in the statute and each dealer is advised to familiarize himself with these sections.

The purpose of the law is to protect farmers from buying seed containing noxious weeds. When the bill was in the legislature, it had the active support of farm organizations.

Except as otherwise stated in the act, every lot, package and bulk lot of agricultural seed containing one pound or more which is offered for sale must hereafter have affixed to it in a conspicuous manner a printed or written tag stating:

The commonly accepted name of the kind and the variety of such seed. When not known the label must be marked "Unknown."

The minimum percentage of pure seed present.

The minimum percentage of germination of the pure seed designated, together with the month and year the seed was tested.

The name and maximum number of each kind of seed of the "noxious weeds" present in each pound of such seed.

The state or foreign country in which the seed was grown.

The name and address of the vendor of the seed.

When seeds are mixed for agricultural purposes the labels must show:

That such seed is a mixture.

The name and minimum percentage by weight of each kind of agricultural seed present in such mixture in excess of five percent of the total.

The name and maximum number

BILLBOARD PRAISES JESS PUGH'S STUNT

Theatrical Publication Comments on His Act on Original Night At Chicago

ADVICE TO BOOKING AGENTS

It is regarded as highly probable that vaudeville booking agencies will be looking up Jess Pugh of this city, chautauqua and lyceum entertainer, following the favorable mention he is given in the current number of "The Billboard," the most widely read theatrical publication which is published. There are two notices in the magazine dealing with Mr. Pugh's appearance at the convention of chautauqua talent in Chicago Sept. 13 and 14. One of them says:

"If big time vaudeville scouts are looking for one of the cleanest, cleverest chaps, most original comedian now before the public, they should trail Jess Pugh. Original night found Jess there with a new stunt that cleaned up. At the stunt fest he was the outstanding hit. No one could have entertained an audience with more clean-cut, infectious fun than Jess did on Original Night. He didn't get 60 laughs in 60 minutes, he only got one in 20 minutes, but it was one continuous roar that lasted 22 minutes."

Another paragraph says: "Jess Pugh presented a masterpiece of original humor at the convention stunt fest in the form of an original take-off on a chautauqua lecturer delivering one of the stereotyped form of oratorical bromides that is unloaded with great power and much necessity on the chautauqua audience. It was a classic in matter and a masterpiece in delivery. It was the last word in refined burlesque. It was true to form."

SEED SELECTION HELD IMPORTANT

Picking Corn From Field Regarded as Best Method to Determine Inherent Tendencies

SEED SELECTION WEEK OCT. 10

Ten Thousand Bushels Required to Plant Rush County Acreage, County Agent Says

The seed corn testing work which has been carried on in Rush county the last two years indicated that more attention must be paid to the early selection of seed from the field and to proper storage, if the corn diseases, which take such a toll by reducing corn yield, is to be eliminated, according to the county agent, D. D. Ball.

If seed is not selected from the standing stalk and is taken from the crib, there is no telling anything concerning the inherent tendencies of the seed or whether or not it is from a disease. From the disease standpoint, it will pay to take great care in selecting only from stalks which show no tendency or sign of disease.

From the germination standpoint, it has been proven conclusively that field selection, followed by proper storage of seed, will result in a material increase in yield per acre. Field selection is also a means of establishing a uniform type of corn, which each year becomes more and more established with a result that it becomes each year easier to select seed from the field.

It requires approximately 10,000 bushels of seed to plant the Rush county acreage and the Rush County Farmers' association has set a goal of 5,000 bushels selected in the county this year. This goal, being only half the required amount of seed that will be used, ought to be easily reached, for a great many farmers have been practicing this means of selection for a number of years. A few farmers have already obtained their seed and it is hoped that those that have not done so will see that their seed is secured during the week of October 10, which has been designated as Seed Corn Selection Week, or at least before heavy frost.

It is pointed out that from the germination standpoint the matter of proper storage is even more important than the time of selection, it being of great importance to store in such a way that the seed will receive a good circulation of air and dry out thoroughly.

LAMEE IS CHARGED WITH CHILD DESERTION

Bryan, O., Man Who Has Been Living in Milroy Said to Have Deserted His Family

ALSO ACCUSED OF FORGERY

Roy LaMee of Milroy, who was placed in jail Saturday, was turned over to Sheriff T. L. Perkins of Bryan, O., Saturday afternoon late, and he was taken back to his former home in that city to answer first to a charge of child desertion, according to the warrant.

Sheriff Perkins told the local officers that the man had left a wife and two children there, and had been living in Milroy with another woman as his wife. The woman in Milroy was said by the sheriff to have abandoned seven children and her husband in a town in Michigan.

The Bryan, O., sheriff also said that a charge of forgery would be filed against the prisoner. Local officials will investigate the affair in Milroy, and if it is found that Mrs. LaMee is guilty of adultery, she will be arrested.

The visiting sheriff said that LaMee worked in a town in Michigan and induced the woman to go with him, and that he left his wife, and she left her husband with the family.

WEEKLY DRILL ON TUESDAY

All Members of Company Urged by Captain to be Present

The regular weekly drill will be held by Company C, 151st Infantry, at the Sherman building in South Perkins street, Tuesday evening.

Captain Will N. Brann urges that every member of the company be present. Six members of the company have not yet had their physical examination, and they will be examined Tuesday night.

There are now sixty enlisted men in the company, ten having been added since the organization was mustered in and given federal recognition. Uniforms and equipment have been ordered and are expected to reach Rushville within the next two weeks.

TO DEMAND RELEASE OF IRISH PRISONERS

Sinn Feiners Will Make Request of Great Britain as Preliminary Peace Condition

DELEGATION LEAVES OCT. 10

(By United Press)

Dublin, Oct. 3.—Release of four thousand interned Sinn Feiners captured and imprisoned by crown forces during the fighting in Ireland since the 1916 rebellion will be demanded by Arthur Griffith in the name of the Irish republic, as a preliminary condition of peace, it was understood, here, today.

When the Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries go to London for the proposed conference with a British cabinet committee seeking an Irish solution, the growing sentiment of Irish people that these "prisoners of war" should be freed, will be insisted upon, it was believed.

The Sinn Fein delegation is to leave here on the night of October 10.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS PLAN COUNTY CONVENTION

About thirty or forty Sunday schools in Rush county were represented Sunday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church when the preliminary plans were made for a county convention of the Sunday schools of this county. E. P. Albertson of Indianapolis, general secretary of the State Sunday School Association was present and gave an address and helped formulate the plans.

Gates Ketchum, chairman for Rush county, will appoint a committee to decide definitely upon the date, which will be sometime near the middle of November. The convention will be held in the First Presbyterian church of this city.

HERMES TO BE AMBASSADOR

German Food Minister to be Sent to Washington

(By United Press)

Berlin, Oct. 3.—Dr. Hermes, German food minister, will be appointed ambassador to Washington, it was definitely stated in Majority Socialistic circles today. His early resignation from the cabinet was expected.

Considerable conflicting support and opposition has been aroused by the announcement.

Dr. Hermes is a member of the Center party. He is one of the most prominent Germans, it was said, who would be acceptable at Washington on their war records.

He is wealthy, speaks English and one paper said, "has a sensible wife."

MUST PUT TEETH IN LAW, AUTHOR SAYS

Otherwise, Congress Should Admit Esch-Cummins Measure is a Failure and Repeal

STRIKE THREAT INVOLVED

Complete Reshaping of Government's Railroad Policy Advocated by Senator Cummins

By LAWRENCE MARTIN

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Oct. 3.—Congress must either "put teeth" into the Esch-Cummins railroad law or admit it at a failure and repeal it, Senator Cummins, Iowa, declared today.

Complete reshaping of the government's railroad policy, probably at the next session of congress, as a result of the strike threat of railroad employees and the many attacks upon the present law, was forecast by Cummins, part author of the measure.

The demand for anti-strike legislation will be renewed whether the strike now being threatened occurs or not, Cummins indicated. Provisions penalizing railroads or others defying authority of the railway labor board, limitation of the interstate commerce commission's control over rate making and repeal of the guaranteed returns to the roads will all be sought, Cummins said, when Congress takes up the administration's $500,000,000 railroad relief bill.

While chiefs of the railroad brotherhoods met today in Chicago to determine their attitude towards a nation wide rail strike Cummins was preparing to put the Senate Interstate Commerce committee on the rail problem in all its aspects. He has summoned Brotherhood representatives and officials of the Pennsylvania railroad.

The labor leaders will be asked to explain why they refused to recognize the Labor Board's authority to order wage cuts; the Pennsylvania's officials will be quizzed on their refusal to obey the Board's collective bargaining orders.

Legislation designed to save the existing law from complete demolition may grow out of the hearing before the committee.

Cummins also is preparing an

SHOWS EASTHAVEN RUN ECONOMICALLY

J. L. Cowing, Trustee, Points Out $11,903.65 Was Turned Back to State From Maintenance Fund

THREE INSTITUTIONS BLAMED

J. L. Cowing of this city, a member of the board of trustees of Easthaven hospital for the insane at Richmond, today called attention to the efficient management of that institution which was gained from the new state tax levy, that state benevolent institutions were being conducted by extravagant methods. This impression was gained from the fact that the benevolent institutions fund tax levy was increased one mill.

Mr. Cowing said this was due to losses at the state women's prison, the state tuberculosis hospital and the colony for the feeble minded which has just been established near Butlerville. The women's prison, he says, is located in the center of Indianapolis and has no ground to support itself; the patients at the tuberculosis hospital can't work and the Butlerville institution has not had time to get on a paying basis.

He pointed out that the Easthaven board turned back $11,903.65 to the state from its annual appropriation for maintenance at the end of the fiscal year and in addition collected $21,449.80 from patients with independent states, as provided by law, which was turned over to the state. The institution also realized $864.55, he said, from the sale of junk and other waste articles no longer needed.

MERCHANT GRAPPLES WITH PRIEST, IS DEAD

Medical Science to Determine Whether Death of Wealthy Greek Sunday Was Murder

SOME SAY PRIEST HIT HIM

(By United Press)
New York, Oct. 3.—Medical science was expected to determine today whether the mysterious death of Nicholas Varzakakos at the altar of St. Nicholas Greek Catholic church yesterday, was murder.

Friends of the dead man told the police he was struck down by a heavy brass candle stick in the hands of the priest, the Rev. Kyriakos Vafiadakis during an altercation.

Other witnesses denied the report the priest struck Varzakakos and held to the belief that he died because he profaned the church.

A hasty investigation by police surgeons led to the belief the man may have been a victim of heart disease. The incident in the church which is located in the downtown financial district occurred during special memorial services for a Greek soldier who had died under the American flag.

The Rev. Vafiadakis criticized "mismanagement of the financial affairs of the church," adding that "unable to pay its debts, the church will close its doors tomorrow."

Varzakakos, a wealthy merchant and member of the Board of Trustees, ran forward to the altar crying that he wanted to contradict the priest's statements.

SAYS THE MINORITY RULES THE NATION

Chicago, Oct. 3.—The minority and not the majority rules in affairs of the nation in many cases, much to the detriment of good government, Joseph B. Griffin, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, told the Grain Dealers national Association here today.

"Minority groups organize to demand legislation and often obtain it generally at the expense of the organized," Griffin told the 2,000 members of the organization.

"At state capitals and at Washington, one finds representatives of these small groups pressing legislation that will only benefit themselves."

Griffin's remarks were taken as a slap at those who demand legislation to curb the activities of the Chicago grain pit.

SISTERS SMOTHER TO DEATH IN FIRE

(By United Press)
Detroit, Oct. 3.—Trapped by a fire in their home, two sisters were smothered to death early today.

They were Irene Badnick, 4 years old, and Eleanor Badnick, 7.

A twelve year old brother jumped from a second story window with a baby sister in his arms.

Both parents escaped.

New York, Oct. 3.—The strength of oils was the feature of early trading in the stock market today.

Domestic oils led the upturn and Texas Pacific made an early high above 24, up over 5 points in four days of trading.

Asphalt made an early high at 54 1/2 and Sinclair, Pacific Oil and Texas Company, were all fractionally higher.

Mexican Petroleum was exception to the general trend and was off at 190 at the opening and shortly thereafter sold down to 99 1/2.

The rest of the list was firm and Kelly Springfield again led the tire stocks with a new high on the move above 44. Steel common was off 3 but independent steels were fractionally higher.

Sugars were soft.

PERIOD OF GRACE EXPIRED AUG. 31

Automobile License Department Found it Necessary, However, to Allow Additional

UNABLE TO COMPLETE WORK

Warns That Trading in Motor Vehicles Should Cease Unless They Are Properly Registered

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 3.—A warning that trading in automobiles and motor vehicles of all kinds should cease at once unless such vehicles are properly registered and have certificate of title, has been issued in a special bulletin of the Hoosier State Automobile Association, based on information issued today from the office of Ed Jackson, Secretary of State. A statement from H. D. McClelland, chief in charge of the automobile license bureau of the secretary of state's office says:

"The 90 day period of grace allowed automobile owners to procure a certificate of title for their vehicle expired August 31. It was found necessary to allow additional time on account of the automobile license department being unable to complete the work in that length of time. This department is now up to date with the work of issuing titles and license plates, and all owners who have not made application for certificate of title should do so at once."

"It is now a violation of the law to buy, sell or trade a motor vehicle or motorcycle unless a certificate of title, properly assigned, is delivered with the car, except that no title is required for new cars in the possession of the dealer, but the buyer of such new car must at once apply for certificate of title, this to be assigned by such dealer."

"The purchaser of second hand cars must now demand of the vendor a certificate of title. This title, properly assigned, with application for new title in the purchaser's name must be sent to the secretary of state with a fee of 50 cents if there is a certificate container already in the driver's compartment of the car, or $1.00 (One Dollar) if the car has no such container."

"Some persons have the idea that the assigned title delivered with car is to be held by the purchaser. This is incorrect, as title assigned title must be forwarded to the secretary of state with an application for title in the purchaser's name."

"All automobile owners should at once attach their containers in the driving compartment of their car. They should place therein the receipt for license plate obtained when such plates were issued to them. If this receipt has been lost or misplaced, a duplicate will be issued gratis by this office. The certificate of title should not be carried, but should be placed with other valuable papers."

"License plates or transfer of license plates will not be issued after Oct. 8th unless accompanied by assigned title, or application for new title in the name of the purchaser."

The Hoosier State Auto Association points out that violations of this law will bring heavy penalties. "We believe this law will minimize the commercialized theft of automobiles," declared M. E. Noblet, secretary of the association. "This is one of the important bits of protective legislation our association was able to accomplish at the last session of the legislature, and we believe it will win hearty approval from all owners when its operation becomes fully effective."

"Already the motor police provision of this act has resulted in the uncovering of many thousands of motor vehicles that never have had licenses. The secretary of state has been required to order an additional 35,000 sets of license plates, due principally to the work of the state motor policemen. Figure this up at say an average of $5 per set, and see whether or not this sequestered revenue to the state justifies the salaries of these dozen or so police officers."

Mr. Noblet's advice is for all motorists to "get right" without delay. A "call down" from any police officer may be expected from now on—and very shortly the law's teeth will be bared, with attendant, heavy penalties. He urges that any persons who have not received their titles get in touch with the notary that filled out the blanks and see whether there has been delay on that end of the line. Scores of wrong addresses and many applications with no addresses are stacked up in the secretary of state's office now, it is stated. The burden is on

Austria Dubious Over Emperor Karl And New Campaign

(By United Press)
Vienna, Oct. 3.—Austria expects the Allies to prevent former Emperor Karl from using West Hungary as a base of operations in a new campaign to regain the Hungarian throne.

The Austrian government has sent a note to the council of ambassadors in Paris, calling attention to West Hungary's action in proclaiming itself independent.

Austria fears that Karl's adherents are behind this move and that if Karl can get from Switzerland to West Hungary, he will be proclaimed king there and will attempt to extend his rule over the rest of the country.

The territory which has proclaimed its independence has been claimed by both Austria and Hungary. The Budapest government denies it had anything to do with the declaration of independence.

of each kind of seed of the "noxious weeds" per pound.

The minimum percentage of germination of each kind of agricultural seed used in the mixture in excess of five percent of the entire mixture, together with the month and year the seed was tested.

The name and address of the vendor.

Four exemptions are provided: When possessed, exposed for sale or sold for manufacturing or food purposes only.

When sold to merchants to be re-cleaned before being sold or offered for sale for seeding purposes.

When in store for the purpose of re-cleaning, or not possessed, sold, or offered for sale for seeding purposes within the state.

When grown, sold and delivered by the producer on his own premises for seeding purposes by the purchaser himself. If, however, the seed is advertised for sale or is transported by common carrier, except when transported for the purpose of being re-cleaned, the law shall apply.

The law provides that the term agricultural seed shall include timothy, blue grass, red top, orchard grass, bromegrass, fescues, sorghum, sudan grass, millets, red clover, alsike clover, white clover, alfalfa, sweet clover, Canada field peas, canary peas, cowpeas, soybeans, vetches, oats, wheat, rye, barley, buckwheat and corn of all kinds, tomatoes, onions, cabbage, beans, melons, sugar beets, mangels, carrots, tobacco and other cereals, grasses, legumes or truck crop seeds.

Noxious weeds are defined to include, buckthorn, bracted plantain, Canada thistle, chicory, common plantain, corn cockle, curled dock, dodder, horse nettle, mustard, ox-eyed daisy, prickly lettuce, quack grass, wild onion and yellow trefoil.

G. O. P. CONDEMNS KLAN

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 3.—Not only did the Republican party here fail to take whatever political advantage there might have been in the stand of Mayor Bosse, Democratic candidate for reelection against the Ku Klux Klan, but itself condemned the Klan its platform just announced. It did not mention the Klan itself, but meant the Klan unmistakably. The Klan is making strong efforts for members here.

SUSPECT RELEASED

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Christopher Reibold, held in connection with the mysterious shooting of Fred Christensen, cashier of the Glenview State Bank, was released from custody here last night.

GRAND JURY TO PROBE KLAN

tion today. They were Sheriff Buchanan, Louis Crow, Laundryman Policeman Ed Howard and Carl West.

The others were only slightly injured.

Word reached here today of the offer of Governor Neff of Texas to give the aid of the state in investigating the riots.

County Attorney Tierney refused the offer, it was said, and announced he was able to cope with the situation.

Deputy W. B. Burton, of Waco, who accompanied Sheriff Buchanan to Lorena for the purpose of stopping the advertised Klan parade, told the details of the riot.

He said "I will not be positive of it, but I am of the opinion that Sheriff Buchanan was shot by a masked man."

Burton declared that after the sheriff went down he emptied his pistol into the crowd which piled on top of him although at the time he was held by six men.

A. M. Younger, retired farmer, 828 W. 10th St., Rushville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for about ten years and they have done me good. When a man gets as old as I, he is bound to have more or less trouble with the kidneys. At times my back gets weak and lame. There is a dull aching through the small part, too. Then the kidney secretions are too frequent, causing me to get up at night."

Every time I have been this way I have used a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from Johnson & Co., Drug store and they have never failed to relieve me in a short time."

The above statement was given on August 26, 1915 and on November 5, 1920, Mr. Younger added: "I still think Doan's Kidney Pills are the best medicine made for kidney trouble. I use Doan's occasionally and get satisfactory results."

PACKERS TO VOTE NEXT SATURDAY

Union Employees of The Country Will Determine Whether a Strike Will be Called

WAGES ARE NOT INVOLVED

Is on Question of Whether Employers Will Give Unions Official Recognition

By J. L. O'SULLIVAN (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Oct. 3.—A strike vote of the union packer employees of the country will be taken next Saturday, it was learned by the United Press today. The vote will be on the question of whether the men favor leaving their jobs in the event the union is unable to obtain recognition from the employers. No question of wages is involved.

Packers declared an open shop on Sept. 15, when the agreement under which they had been operating fixed by the federal judge.

The ballots were mailed out secretly from the Union headquarters here today. High officials of the union were in conference at the office of Dennis Lane, secretary. They made every effort to keep the fact they were mailing out the strike ballots a secret.

Packers hold to their stand that they will not recognize the union. They claim the union organization represents only a small percentage of the total number of workers employed in the packing industry.

Approximately 200,000 men are employed in the packing industry of which about 35,000 are in Chicago. The others are in the large packing centers of Kansas City, St. Louis, Omaha, St. Paul, Buffalo, Baltimore, Fort Worth, Indianapolis and Milwaukee.

Packers say not more than 35 percent of the men belong to the union, while union leaders claim 85 percent.

The employees feel that they could defeat a strike at the present time, due to the widespread unemployment. When they declared for the open shop when the Alschuler agreement terminated, leading Chicago packers told the United Press they expected a "small flurry" from the unions, but were confident they could beat any organized walkout.

AMUSEMENTS

"Room and Board", Princess

A cast of more than two hundred extras was assembled for the Irish village scenes in Constance Binney's latest picture, "Room and Board", which opens today for a two day run at the Princess Theatre.

"Room and Board" presents the star, Miss Binney, as an impoverished Irish noblewoman, who has inherited little except a run-down castle saddled with a heavy mortgage, and the family pride.

Necessity compels her to pocket her pride, however, and lease the castle to a rich American engineer, who is interested in Irish genealogy, being of Irish extraction himself. The girl pretends that she is one of the castle servants, there being all too few of the real ones, and the paying guest is told that the mistress of the estate is in France.

How well she carries on her camouflage, and what happens when her boarder entertains a house-party of American friends, including a very upstage fiancée, makes a delightful romantic-comedy of the clean brisk, Realart type.

Tom Carrigan will be seen as Miss Binney's leading man, and a well selected cast interprets the other important roles.

"So Long Letty", Mystic

"So Long Letty," the six-reel Robertson-Cole super-special produced by the master comedy-drama producer, Al Christie, opened at the Mystic Theatre today for a run of two days. The film is a screen adaptation of the famous Oliver Morosco comedy of the same name, which for five solid years has "held" the theatre-going public of the country.

The story deals with two newly married couples who present a combination of vastly different personalities. One husband, a gay bird, has married a girl who doesn't care a fig for purple and fine linen and devotes most of her time to the preparation of excellently cooked meals and the care of her home. The other hubby, an honest to goodness home loving chap, has placed the gold band on the hand of a sweetie who is strong for cabarets and the gay and festive life and who can't boil water without burning it. The opening of the picture finds

BASEBALL LEADER

After Years of Effort Chieftain Has Succeeded in Killing The Sobriquet "Muggsy"

HE IS A FAMED FIGHTER

Giant Boss Started Playing Professional Ball in His Home Town, Truxton, N. Y., in 1890

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 3.—Back in the foothills of southern Ohio, where they turn out men like "Slim" Sallee, the natives make an annual pilgrimage to Cincinnati to see a baseball game.

Crops permitting, they always arrange their schedule to get there when the New York Giants are playing.

Not particularly because the Giants are always up around the top, out because they have a chance to pour out a season's accumulation of wrath on the portly shoulders of the Giant Chieftain, John J. Mc-Graw.

After years of effort, McGraw has succeeded in killing the sobriquet, "Muggsy" in every city around the circuit—but Cincinnati.

He is still known there as "Mug-gsy" because the fans know he doesn't like it.

It brings out one thing that has made McGraw one of the most colorful figures of baseball, one thing that has made his club the biggest drawing road team in the National League. The fans hold nothing against McGraw, but he's a famed fighter, and they like to see him fight.

They like to see him storm out to the plate and berate the umpire.
They like to see him on the coaching line, shaking his fists at the home players. They love to hear him "ride" his own. They don't act as if they like it, but they always turn out to see him.

McGraw is the greatest manager in the National League and, with the possible exception of Connie Mack, the greatest leader the game has ever known. In one respect only must the New York leader bow to the slim, gaunt director of the Philadelphia Athletics. Mack has won more world's championships than he. But Mack has had a tailender for seven years, and his long career of 19 years, McGraw has been in the cellar only once. Mc-Graw has won seven pennants, while Mack has only six to his credit.

In nineteen years, "Jawn J." as he is known in New York, has won seven league championships, one world's championship, eight seconds one third, two fourth and one last in 1915.

Calling the names of players who starred under McGraw is like reciting a roster of baseball's greatest. Mathewson, McGinty, Taylor, Ames, Wiltse, Besnahan, Bowerman,
McGann, Devlin, Dahlen, Donlin Brouthers, McCormick and, in more recent years, Burns, Young, Frisch and Kelly have all bloomed in their greatest under McGraw.

The Giant boss started playing professional ball in his home town, Truxton, N. Y., in 1890. He played with Olean and then went to Wells-ville, N. Y. He played his first big league game as a shortstop with the famous Baltimore Orioles on April 26, 1891. Wilbert Robinson, new manager of the Brooklyn Nationals, was then catcher for the club.

McGraw came to the Giants July 19, 1902, when Andrew Freedman owned the club and Horace Fogel was manager. The club finished eighth that season. McGraw became the manager in 1903, and placed the club second in the race. He won pennants in 1904 and 1905, when he beat Connie Mack in the world's series. He won pennants also in 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1917, when Merkle pulled his historic bunger, and the Cubs won the race.

Several years ago, McGraw, with Charles Stoneham, prominent broker and horseman, bought the club and McGraw is now vice-president.
In recent years it has been reported annually that McGraw would retire.
Last year in the midsummer when he signed Johnny Evers as assistant, it was thought sure that he would lay down the reins in favor of the former Cub, and last winter, when he signed Hughie Jennings, his old team-mate of the Oriole days, the conviction was strengthened.

While McGraw did not give up the management of the team this year, he went into a semi-retirement, remaining on the bench all season and allowing Jennings and Coby Dolan to do the field work.
Polo Ground fans have never liked the absence of the portly, gray-thatched leader from the coaching lines.

McGraw is known as a fearless trader and a buyer without a price limit. He gave first indications of this when he paid $11,000 for Rube Marquard years ago. Last winter he offered $150,000 to the Cincinnati Reds for Eddie Roush or Heinie Groh, and he is reported to have offered the St. Louis Cardinals an even greater sum for Rogers Hornsby. He never looks to the future. He always works for the present and will dispose of the most promising players to fill an immediate hole.

With all the faults that he may be accused of possessing, McGraw has never turned down a friend. He released Pat Moran to go to the Cincinnati Reds and beat him out of a pennant. He took Johnny Evers on when he was out of work, and later released him to the Cubs when Evers had a chance to become a manager again. This year he brought Amos Rusie, the famous old pitcher, from a humble position in Seattle and gave him a life job as assistant superintendent of the Polo Grounds. He always sticks to his old ball players and takes care of them.

Those who know him have nothing but kind words and the thousands who do know him will regret the day he leaves the diamonds, because he is one of the figures who really helped to make baseball.

Brother Vs. Brother

(By United Press)

For the second time in successive years, brothers will oppose each other in the world's series.

Last year Jimmy Johnston was on third base for Brooklyn, and his older brother, "Doc" Johnston, held down first for the Indians.

This year the slugging Meusels will be in the opposing outfield. Bob, in right field for the Yankees, and "Irish" in left for the Giants.

Both are great players and home-run hitters.

TAIL LIGHTS WIN
A REAL THRILLER

Overcome 1 to 0 Lead in 9th Inning
by Tying Score and Score Winning Run in 10th

BATTERY DOES THE WORK

With Two Down in Ninth Inning,
Byrne Hits Safely and Scores
On Clever's Bingle

Maintaining a 1 to 0 lead from the third inning, Andersonville lost a heart breaker and a real thriller yesterday afternoon to the Tail Lights, who tied the score in the ninth inning batted around a runner for the winning run, giving Rushville the 2 to 1 victory over Andersonville.

Andersonville apparently had the game sewed up in the ninth inning, when Rushville had two outs, but Byrne started things with a single, and scored on a hit by Clever, putting the score 1 to 1 and making an extra inning game necessary.

In the first of the tenth Andersonville attempted to win the game back, but two men died on base, when the batter failed to deliver the necessary hit. Rushville, however, got two men on base at the very start, and the winning run was scored when Bennett singled with two outs, and two left on base.

Probably no game here this season created as much interest as the one yesterday and up until the ninth inning, it usually was one-two-three for each team, Rushville getting only four hits off Croddy until the ninth, and Andersonville getting a like number until that inning.

The game was really a pitcher's battle and each worked out of several bad places. Andersonville's fielding was perfect and they made several good catches and plays.

Play by play by the innings:

First Inning

Andersonville—Wicker grounded out to Bennett. McCarty flew out to Pierce. Pruitt was out on a fly to Sharp. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Rushville—Joyce and George each fanned. Bennett hit to center field for two bases. Pierce drew a walk. Byrne fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Second Inning

Andersonville—Talbert out to Conway. Scott out, Shaw to Bennett. Moore fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Rushville—Clever walked. Conway up, Clever caught off first. Conway fouled out to Ricketts. Shaw singled through short. Sharp hit a roller past short and Joyce whiffed for the third out, leaving two to die on base. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Third Inning

Andersonville—Wright hit to center field. Ricketts up, Wright took second on passed ball, and Ricketts fanned. Croddy singled to left field fence, scoring Wright. Wicker up, Croddy caught off first, Clever to Bennett. Wicker fanned. One run, two hits, no errors.

Rushville—George out Talbert to Moore. Bennett out on high fly to Talbert. Pierce fied out to Wright. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning

Andersonville—McCarty out, George to Bennett. Pruitt safe on first on wild throw on third strike. Talbert grounded to Shaw who threw Pruitt out to second, to Joyce. Scott singled between first and second. Moore out, Clever to Bennett. No runs, one hit, one error.

Rushville—Byrne and Clever each fanned. Conway out, Croddy to Moore. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning

Andersonville—Wright safe on first when Shaw let his grounder go through him. Ricketts up, Wright caught off first, Clever to Bennett; batter fouled to Byrne. Croddy walked. Wicker singled to left. McCarty struck out. No runs, one hit, one error.

Rushville—Shaw fied out to McCarty. Sharp out, Talbert to Moore. Joyce popped out to Pruitt. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning

Andersonville—Pruitt out, Shaw to Bennett; Talbert out, George to Bennett. Scott out, Joyce to Bennett. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Rushville—George flew out to McCarty. Bennett popped to Moore. Pierce out on fly to McCarty. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning

Andersonville—Moore and Wright fanned. Ricketts out, Shaw to Bennett. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Rushville—Byrne fied to Wright.

MORRISTOWN IS DEFEATED

Arlington Athletic Club Has Walkaway in Game Sunday

The Arlington Athletic club had a walkaway Sunday afternoon when the Morristown football team proved no match for them, the game ending 52 to 0. Morristown fought hard in each quarter, but when the game ended it was a shutout victory for Arlington. Coach Ross Smith and Ross Hutchinson have the team lined-up in good shape now, and with a few extra licks this week, they expect to take the Shelbyville Independents into camp next Sunday. The visiting team is a heavy outfit, but the Arlington team is stronger than ever this year.

Watching Score Board

Yesterday's hero—Babe Ruth hit his 59th and last homer of the regular season giving the Yanks a 7 to 6 victory over the Red Sox in the season's finale.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, runners up in the National League race ended the season by trimming the Cardinals 4 to 3.

The St. Louis Browns won third place in the American League race by winning the last game of the season from Detroit 12 to 3.

John McGraw presented twenty of the new National league champions in the line up for the benefit of Brooklyn fans and the Robins trimmed them all 7 to 4.

The Cubs brought the season to a close by taking two from the Reds 7 to 5 and 7 to 0.

Cleveland's Indians fell before the White Sox in their finale 7 to 4. Washington copped the closer from the Pathetics 11 to 6.

BABE RUTH, KING OF HITTERS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Baseball has never known a greater figure, fiction never a more colorful and romantic hero than George (Babe) Ruth.

The rise of the chubby, nineteen-year-old boy, from the obscurity of a walled industrial school to the pinnacle of fame, from poverty to affluence, makes one of the greatest stories of a decade.

But for one of those strokes of fate, which turn the destinies of great men's lives, Babe Ruth might now be an obscure tailor or an unknown cigarmaker instead of the greatest ball player the game ever has known.

Babe Ruth is the pride of the baseball fan, the idol of the kids and the biggest individual figure in sport because he was born with a baseball eye and he developed it from the time he was able to swing a bat.

He put heart and soul into baseball and he rose until he became

FREAK WAGERS BEING MADE

New York, Torn Between Two Fires, is Wandering Who is Going to Win The Series

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 3.—Two years ago the cops in Cincinnati would pull a stranger around the corner and ask him if he didn't think the Reds were wonderful.

Last year the same guardians of life and limb in Cleveland would hurl at any one with a New York hustle—"Wait till the Indians get through with you."

New York, torn between two fires is taking only:

"Who's going to win the series?"

There is no distinct factional following with each club like there was back in 1906 when the Cubs and White Sox had their own parks and fans in the "windy city."

In New York the Giant fans and the Yank fans are Giant fans. It remains for the series to prove which has the greater hold.

Even money prevails in the little betting as the two Manhattan clubs get ready for the annual fall classic.

Professional gamblers are offering 10 to 9 and allowing the bettor to take his choice. A lot of freak wagers are being made on individual games. Odds of 8 to 5 are offered that Babe Ruth gets a home run during the series.

The influx of fans for the series

The War Mothers will meet in the assembly room of the court house Wednesday afternoon.

The Happy-Go-Lucky club will be entertained with a one o'clock luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Mauzy in North Harrison street.

The Ben Davis Creek Missionary Society will meet Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the church. All members are requested to be present.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church will meet Wednesday afternoon for work at the church. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Billings entertained with a prettily appointed dinner party yesterday at their home southwest of the city. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Allen, Mrs. Lenora Blackledge and sons and Mr. and Mrs. John Kennett of Milroy.

Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy and daughter Helen and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keith were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dyer of Westland yesterday.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First United Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Miss Maggie Little in Benjamin street.

The Ladies Aid Society of the St. Paul's M. E. church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. C. Compton in West Third street. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Ray Compton and Mrs. Chester Cross.

The Triangle Club will be entertained by Miss Viola Jay Wednesday evening instead of Tuesday evening, at seven o'clock sharp, at her home in North Main street. Every member is requested to have their passage of scripture for the roll call.

A charity card party will be given at the Social Club rooms Friday afternoon by the Tri Kappa sorority for the benefit of the county board of children's guardians, which receives practically all of its financial support in the work among underprivileged children from the sorority. Five hundred and Bridge will be played and the play will start promptly at two o'clock. Lunch will be served at four o'clock.

Miss Irma G. Breeheisen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Breeheisen of this city, was united in marriage to Herbert H. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hall of Milroy, Saturday afternoon at the St. Paul's M. E. parsonage by the Rev. C. S. Black, in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends. The ring ceremony of the M. E. church was used. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their future home in this city.

The Misses Jean Herkless and Emily Mauzy and Roger Hammer of this city were guests at a dancing party given by Miss Feryl Sipe and Miss Martha McIntyre in Newcastle last Friday evening. The Rose City Six furnished music for the program of dances and several cabaret "stunts" added to the entertainment. Punch was served throughout the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hammer of this city were among the chaperones at the party.

Mrs. Freeloze Peters was pleasantly surprised Sunday with a dinner party in honor of her seventy-fourth birthday. The table was centered with a birthday cake with seventy-four lighted candles. On both sides of this was a large bouquet of sweetheart roses which were gifts of the guests present. Those who enjoyed the dinner with Mrs. Peters were Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes and daughter Julia Ann of Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Meyer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Peters and family and Walter Peters.

STATE WORKERS COMING

Dozen Salvationists to Take Part in Harvest Festival Tuesday

Gifts for the annual Harvest Festival of the Salvation Army were being collected today by Envoy Ellis in preparation for the auction, which will be held at the church in South Pearl street Tuesday evening, following an open air meeting at the corner of Main and Second streets, in which approximately a dozen Salvationists from Indianapolis will participate. Brigadier Casler of Indianapolis will head the Indianapolis delegation coming for the festival and will also conduct the auction.

Envoy Ellis announced today that the total proceeds from the auction will remain in Rushville and will be used by the local corps in relief work. Heretofore, it has been the policy for a portion of the Harvest Festival receipts to be given to the state organization.

MARIAN M'ARDLE ON TRIAL

Accused of The Murder of Her Step-Father, Dan P. Kaber

(By United Press)
Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 3—Marian McArdle 21 was placed on trial here today for the murder of her step-father, Dan P. Kaber, wealthy publisher who was stabbed to death by a hired assassin.

Attempts to secure women who have daughters to serve on the jury will be made by the defense who will contend that anything Marian may have done was because of her mother's influence, or because of her devotion to her mother.

Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, the girl's mother, is now serving a sentence of life imprisonment in the women's state reformatory for the murder.

PLANS TO FORCE COAL PRICES DOWN

Efforts of Unemployment Committee Will be Devoted to Preventing Higher Prices

ESPECIALLY WHEN NEEDED

No Exact Plan is Reached But Government Will Take Steps to Keep Price Down

By HERBERT W. WALKER

Washington, Oct. 3.—Efforts were being made by committees of the national unemployment conference to force down the price of coal and to prevent higher prices when winter increases the demand.

As yet no concrete plan of action has been evolved but government figures indicate that unless some steps are taken a coal shortage with "famine prices" may come with any increased industrial activity as the usual winter demands. Coal production so far this year is the lowest since 1909.

It is the belief of Secretary of Commerce Hoover and other administration leaders that the first step should be a cut in coal prices, in accordance with the conference recommendation that all prices be brought down.

The next step in the administration's opinion must be settlement of disputes between operators and union miners in various parts of the country which are cutting down production.

Official government figures show that non union miners in many sections are working six days a week at a lower daily wage than the unionists but are netting much more each week because the organized miners are able to work only part time.

The national coal agreement between the operators and miners regarding wages and working conditions expire next March with strikers already looming up over the question of its renewal. Efforts may be made in the conference to obtain an agreement that this question be submitted to arbitration.

Harding was understood to be considering issuing an appeal to governors and mayors urging them to proceed "at once" to carry out the recommendations of the conference which decided that the unemployment distress is primarily a community problem.

The president, it was reported, may also direct a message to congress asking the two bodies to go the limit with appropriations which would provide needed work on federal projects.

MARKING TIME AS BALLOTS ARE COUNTED

Head of Four Railway Unions Meet in Chicago to Canvass Strike Vote

REGARDED AS A FORMALITY

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Railroad employees of the nation marked time today as their strike ballots were tabulated in Chicago. Heads of four railway unions met here today to make the official count of the votes of the men.

Rail employees voted whether or not to accept the 12 percent wage reduction that took effect July 1 under orders of the United States railroad labor board.

The strike ballots of these unions were counted today.

Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Enginemen and Firemen, Order of Railway Conductors and the Switchmen's Union of North America.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the members of the Federated Shop Crafts have voted overwhelmingly to strike, it has been announced.

Union officials here today intimated that the counting of the vote of the four unions was a mere formality as, the United Press was informed, the ballots indicated the will of the majority of railroaders was to strike.

Following the strike vote, grievance committees will consider the advisability of a strike. No strike before a month is probable, it was said.

HELD AT NEWCASTLE

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 3.—Articles of extradition were filed today by the state of North Carolina for Howard Rothrock who is being held in Newcastle. Rothrock is alleged to have stolen $225 worth of clothing from a box car on the Norfolk and Western at Winston Salem July 23, 1921 while this car was side-tracked at that city.

EVEN MONEY IS RULE IN BETTING

always apparent in a smaller city, is not noticeable here. Outside of the talk on the street corners and an occasional word in the subway, a stranger would not know that anything out of the ordinary was on the card.

More enthusiasm was shown over the Yank-Indian series due perhaps to the fact that all New York was behind their own club in the pennant race. There is no lack of interest in the series, but New York is waiting for it in the characteristic blasé manner. There are no pictures of "our champions" in all the store windows. There are no placards around bearing pictures of McGraw and Huggins. The only way New York records such interest is "at the gate" and it is sure to be shown there when the Giants and the Yankees start at it Wednesday. Forty thousand are expected at each game. The Giants have sold all their boxes and reserved seats and the Yanks have only a few reserved seats left.

Judge Landis, commission of baseball, established his headquarters today at the Commodore hotel. He refused to pick a dinner, saying it would be a hard fought series that might go nine games.

Both clubs will work out today and tomorrow on the Polo Grounds. The Yanks will leave the field from 11 to 1 o'clock and the Giants will work from then until Manager McGraw decides they have enough.

The Giants will be the home club in the first game Wednesday and will wear their new white uniforms.
The Yankees will make their first appearance in new gray road uniforms. They will then alternate every day.

MUST PUT TEETH IN LAW, SAYS AUTHOR

amendment to the law to limit the Interstate Commerce Commission's rate control to interstate rates. The 48 states are parties to a suit now pending before supreme court, attacking the "commission's authority to control intrastate rates. In the event the federal commission is upheld, the law be amended to restore to the states their previous powers over rail road rates, Cummins said.
The law is also under fire from the agriculture bloc in Congress which will demand repeal of the guarantee as a means of forcing freight rate reductions. So long as the guarantee remains the bloc's members contend, rates must remain at their present high level.

BABE RUTH IS
KING OF HITTERS

played the infield and the outfield with equal ability, but it was his batting that made him the most treasured player on the various teams of a league organized among the inmates of the school.
While his whole heart was in base ball, he prided himself upon the strength of the big, healthy body that made him adept at wrestling and gymnastic sports. He boasted of his hardy body and used to wear an open-necked shirt during the most severe of winter weather.

He became a subject for concern when he reached the age of nineteen. Unsophisticated by his long confinement and possessed of great vitality and energy, the Brothers at the institution had fears of what would happen if he were given his liberty without having a watchful eye over him.

Having observed his baseball talent and feeling sure that he could make a success of the professional game, the president of the institution asked Jack Dunn, manager of the Baltimore International League, to give him a trial.

Without having seen him in action, Dunn accepted him on the recommendation of his guardians, and took him to Baltimore in January, 1914. A week ahead of the club he went to the training camp at Fayetteville, N. C., where he caused a sensation by his hitting. Dunn started him as a pitcher, and he made good at once by defeating the Phillies, the Athletics and the Giants.

The Baltimore Club went on the rocks when the Federal League invaded, and Dunn had to get rid of his star players. He sold Ruth, Shore and Egan to the Boston Red Sox for $25,000.

Ruth continued as a pitcher with the Red Sox, and he was a mighty good one, perhaps the best southpaw in the league. But his batting was attracting more attention. In 1915 he won 18 out of 25 games and batted .315. In 1916 he won 23 out of 36 games and batted .272. In 1917 he won 24 out of 37 games and batted .325.

Realizing then that he was too valuable a man to be kept on the bench three or four games a week, the management of the club started using him alternately in the box, on first base and in the outfield. In 1918 he pitched and won 13 out of 20 games and batted .300. In the field he was handling himself ac-ceptably.

It was in 1919 that he jumped into the spotlight as a home-run hitter and started the records that blazed him across the baseball sky.
He pitched 14 games, winning 9 of them. He batted .322 and knocked 29 home runs, breaking all records.

Baseball had one of its greatest sensations in the winter following the 1919 season, when Harry Frazee, owner of the Boston Reds sold Ruth to the New York Yankees for an announced sum of $125,000, but rumored to be greater.

Ruth was admitted to be the greatest figure in the game, but the business sagacity of Colonels Ruppert and Huston, owners of the Yankees, was questioned. Ruth brought with him a contract for $20,000 a year, and it was predicated that the star slugger might be a "bust" and his purchasers never would get a return on their investment.

However, the deal proved a great money-maker in the 1920 season, when Ruth did the impossible and knocked 54 home runs. He broke the attendance record in every ball park, paid for himself in receipts and returned the club owners an estimated profit of close to a half-million. He broke even the 1920 home run record in 1921, and again made the team a big financial winner.

Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees, made a good right fielder out of him and, in addition to his slugging, he became one of the most consistent hitters in the league.

With all of his success, the head of the great star was not turned.
He is still the same unassuming, rather boyish youngster that came out of St. Mary's. He loves baseball and he plays every game with all his heart and soul. Opposing pitchers, managers and players admit he is the greatest of the great.

"Mr. Jackie Jones, the cook lady says tell the master to order more Kellogg's Corn Flakes right away, because they ain't no more in the whole house since everybody's eating Kellogg's—they're so awfully good!"

Don't wait another day to know the deliciousness of Kellogg's Corn Flakes

How Kellogg's Corn Flakes appeal to the most fastidious appetites! What a wonder-picture they make—all joyously tumbling and jumbled in a big bowl; sunny-brown, oven-fresh—the gladdest good-to-eat cereal you've ever tasted—or looked upon!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes are a revelation—palate-ticklers that bring the sunshine right into the breakfast room and get the day going all right! Never was such flavor as you'll find in Kellogg's; never was there such all-the-time crispness!

Your happiness will know no bounds when you see the little folks come back for "more Kellogg's, Mother, please!"

And, my—how Kellogg's delight the mothers, too—and the daddies and brothers and sisters! Kellogg's win everybody—they're so delicious!

LAWS REGULATE PACKING INDUSTRY

"Packers' Bill" or Packers And Stock Yard Act is Now Being Put Into Effect

REVIEW IS CITED HERE

Points Out Violations Which Are Liable With a Penalty And Manner of Enforcement

Washington, Oct. 3—The so-called "Packers' Bill" is a law. It is officially known as "The Packers and Stock Yards Act". It regulates the buying, selling and handling of all live stock, live stock products, dairy products, poultry, poultry products, and eggs, which are handled in interstate or foreign commerce.

Under the provisions of this act it is either directly or in agreement with is unlawful for any one in the packing business to engage in or use, or combination with any other person any unfair, unjust, discriminatory or deceptive practices; to make or give any person or locality any preference or advantage, or subject them to any prejudice or disadvantage; to engage in any act appertaining the supply of any product manipulating or controlling prices, restraining commerce or creating a monopoly.

The administration of the law devolves upon the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture. He may bring action upon his own initiative whenever he has reason to believe that there is any violation of the law. In such cases he must make written charges and furnish them to the accused, who is entitled to a copy of all evidence against him and the right to a hearing. In the event the defendant is guilty, in the opinion of the Secretary of Agriculture, after hearings have been given, the defendant may within 30 days appeal to the Circuit Court of Appeals asking that the Secretary's findings be set aside or modified. The Circuit Court of Appeals has exclusive jurisdiction and its decisions are final subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States.

The act also provides that stock yards and agencies handling live stock, etc., in interstate commerce, must furnish reasonable service without discrimination; schedules of rates, regulations and charges must be printed and kept for public inspection at the stock yards; these schedules must be in the form and manner determined by the Secretary of Agriculture; no changes shall be permitted in the published rates, charges or regulations of any stock yards, except after ten days notice to the Secretary and the public, which notice shall state the proposed changes. It shall be unlawful for any stock yards or agency to engage in any unfair discriminatory practices in connection with the receiving, marketing, feeding, weighing or otherwise handling live stock in interstate commerce.

Upon his own initiative, or upon complaint of shippers, or upon complaint of any board of agriculture, or live stock association, or state agency, the Secretary of Agriculture may, at any time, institute an inquiry regarding the observance of this act by stock yards or regarding the rates, charges or regulations in effect or proposed to be put into effect at any stock yards. Pending his decision upon the matter, the Secretary may suspend for 60 days the operation of any such rate or regulation and shall file a written statement of his reasons for such suspension. Hearings upon the suspension must be held and the defendant given an opportunity of defense.

After the hearing the Secretary may determine what is just and reasonable in the case and issue orders accordingly and the stock yards must abide by the order. Any stock yard or other agency handling live stock in interstate commerce which violates any of the provisions of the act or any order of the Secretary, shall be liable to the person or persons injured thereby, in the full amount of damages sustained in consequence of such violation, and such liability may be enforced by the damaged party filing complaint with the Secretary or by suit in any District Court of the United States of competent jurisdiction.

BUILDING WORKERS ON JOB

Chicago, Oct. 3—Thousands of Chicago's building workers who have been idle all summer due to a strike and lockout, returned to work today, greatly improving the city's unemployment situation. The city government besides establishing employment bureaus, has taken no step to relieve the unemployment situation. Some sentiment has been stirred up, urging Governor Small to throw open armories for shelter of men out of work, but the executive has taken no action.

Winner of Boy Scout Prizes
Found Dead Hanging From Rope
Chicago, Oct. 3.—Samuel Bullington, 14 year old high school boy, won high honors in the boy scouts for ability to tie complicated knots with a rope. Samuel was found hanging by a rope in a closet yesterday—dead. The knots in the rope were the difficult kind he had won prizes for tying.
Police today said they believed he lost his life experimenting.
*****

Every packer, stock yard, market agency or other concerns covered by the act, must keep complete and accurate accounts and records regarding all transactions, in the manner and form prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture, and open to the inspection of the Secretary of Agriculture, who shall have all the powers of investigation of conduct, practices and management of the packing and stock yard business which are now conferred upon the Federal Trade Commission.
